

SANDRA SHEWRY
Director

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
Department of Health Services

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER
Governor

January 11, 2006

To: Proposers

Subject: Correction to the Domestic Violence Unserved/Underserved
Disabled/Developmentally Disabled Training and Technical Assistance
Request for Proposal (05-45871)

The Department of Health Services (DHS) has just discovered an error made by DHS staff regarding the score a proposal earns that will deem it technically deficient and non-responsive.

Pursuant to Section N - Bid Requirements and Information, 9. DHS Rights, the Department is exercising its rights and issuing this correction notice to make the following change to the (Addendum) Request for Proposal (RFP) document:

Page 32: 2. Stage 2 – Narrative proposal evaluation/scoring

2) DHS will consider a proposal technically deficient and non-responsive if the proposal earns a score that is less than 151 ~~194~~ points. Non-responsive proposals will not advance to Stage 3.

The corrected information for the Request for Proposal (RFP), Number 05-45871, has been posted on the Maternal, Adolescent and Child Health/Office of Family Planning (MCAH/OFP) website at: www.mch.dhs.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Susann J. Steinberg, M.D., Chief
Maternal, Child and Adolescent Health/
Office of Family Planning Branch